

30th August 2010

Successful completion of Three days Study Camp of first-time BJP MPs

New Delhi, Aug. 30:

The three days Study Camp of first-time Bharatiya Janata Party Members of Parliament was successfully concluded on 29th August with the valedictory speech of National President, Shri Nitin Gadkari. The three days camp held from 27th to 29th August in Balaji Nirogdam, Delhi was inaugurated by Shri Lal Krishna Advani, Chairman, BJP Parliamentary Party.

The Study Camp was divided into eight interactive sessions. Shri L. K. Advani in his inaugural speech dealt with 'BJP-History, Development & Contribution'. While Smt Sushma Swaraj, Leader of Opposition in Lok Sabha spoke on 'How to become effective M. P.', Shri Arun Jaitley addressed on 'MPs Media & Image Building.' Shri Ram Naik, National Convener, BJP MPs-MLAs Development Cell gave 'Some useful Tips' and Prof. Bal Apte, Senior M.P. deliberated on 'Role of MP in Organizational Work'. Dr. Vinay Sahastrabuddhe's Power Point presentation on 'Management Techniques for Political Work' was followed by separate sittings for Lok Sabha M. P.s and Rajya Sabha M.P.s where discussions were monitored on 'Effective Participation in the House' by Shri Gopinath Munde, Deputy Leader in Lok Sabha and Shri S. S. Ahluwalia, Deputy Leader in Rajya Sabha.

The mornings of 28th and 29th August began with Yoga and Asans taught by Shri Jaiprakash Agrawal of Surya Foundation. They were followed with optional Massage, Steam Bath and Mud Bath. The Study Camp was jointly organised by Shri Alok Kumar, National Convener, National Training Cell and Shri Ram Naik, National Convener, MPs-MLAs Development Cell. The administrative arrangements for the Study Camp were managed by BJP, Delhi Pradesh under the leadership of State President Shri Vijendra Gupta.

(Ram Naik)
National Convener
MPs-MLAs Development Cell