

For favour of publicity

9th November 2010

Ram Naik demands JPC

Mumbai, Tuesday: “Resignation of the Chief Minister Shri Ashok Chavan is not enough. It is now evident that many ministers of State cabinet as well as central government along with top Defense personnel, several IAS and other senior officers are also involved in the Adarsh Scam. Hence a detailed enquiry into the scam by Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) is a must”, demanded Shri Ram Naik, former petroleum Minister.

Shri Naik further warned that the BJP would not succumb to Congress’s strategy to veil the scam behind the Chief Minister’s resignation. By accepting Shri Chavan’s resignation the Congress has at least accepted the fact of the scam. Since besides ignoring CRZ norms; the scam involves many ministers of State cabinet as well as central government along with top Defense personnel, several IAS and other senior officers the detailed enquiry is a must. The scam made mockery of Kargil martyrs and also held national security at stake. “Considering the gravity of the scam only an enquiry by the JPC will take the issue to the logical end,” said Shri Naik at the end.

(Office Secretary)